Chess club will be a combination of structured, student-centered lessons and hands-on activities based on the theme of each lesson. Students will engage in learning by working in groups, individually, and one-on-one with the teacher. Students will be split into flexible skill groups which will provide level-specific lessons. All grades and skill levels welcome!

Instructor Ken Larson graduated from the University of Chicago with an English Literature degree in 1983. Ken Larson is a professional chess master/teacher. He has been teaching chess to children, full time, since 1983.
